

November 2, 2023

Dear Construction Professional,

We want to invite you to attend the upcoming construction risk management forum, CLRM, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee from April 15 - 17, 2024.

The roundtable is focused on the management of construction risk as it pertains to issues construction professionals face in their day-to-day. This invite-only event is comprised of your peers of all experience levels. This year's agenda focuses on timely topics such as:

- Building a successful project from the ground up
- Underwriting 101
- Managing general contractor risks
- Risk appetite
- Managing project shutdown

The conference features many industry guest speakers, keynote speakers, and breakouts that will significantly benefit your work. Special presentations include:

- State of the industry
- Legal updates
- Stored materials

Breakout sessions will focus on topics such as what is going on with SBA's latest updates, innovations and technology, and sharing reports.

With an emphasis on networking, the CLRM roundtable aims to better connect you with your peers. Attached are the typical attendees you can expect to see in attendance.

There is no cost to attend for the first registrant of each company; meals, meeting costs, and activities are covered by the primary sponsor Partner Engineering and Science, Inc. Additional attendees are $500 per registrant. Travel expenses are covered by you with a negotiated hotel cost estimated at $250/night.

We are confident you will see this as a worthwhile investment for your personal and professional development. It is an opportunity for you to network with industry vendors, meet the keynote speakers, attend valuable educational sessions, and gain specific industry knowledge.

Sincerely,

Bill Tryon
Principal, Chief Strategy Officer
